

Brexit: what welfare, what rights for European migrants in Britain?

Roundtable event Wednesday 29 March University of York
11am-3.20pm FREE, booking essential

Many aspects of the UK's exit from the European Union are unclear at this stage. But we do know that important issues of principle and practice in the legal and welfare systems are at stake. This roundtable event showcases recent research concerning EU migrants in the UK and offers the chance to help shape a practical legal rights toolkit. It invites debate on future provision to underpin EU migrants' welfare support and access to justice.

Sessions include:

- Citizenship, conditionality, and welfare chauvinism: EEA migrants in the UK - findings from the WelCond project
- Prof Peter Dwyer, University of York/Dr Lisa Scullion, University of Salford
- How did we get here? The Brexit vote explained: poverty, low skills and lack of opportunities
- Dave Innes, Policy & Research Manager, Joseph Rowntree Foundation
- The EU Rights Project: developing an interactive toolkit for rights advisers
- Dr Charlotte O'Brien, York Law School
- Life After Leave: A case study of the European Social Fund
- Jed Meers, York Law School
